

U.S. HISTORY

CHAPTERS 3 & 4

STUDY SHEET

List the 13 colonies!

North

Middle

South

In the early 1700's, which were the largest two groups of immigrants?

_____ & _____

Describe the hornbook: _____

Which was the first book printed in America? _____

Which was the standard textbook of the period? _____

Ben Franklin is famous for publishing both “_____” (an annual guide) and the _____ (a newspaper).

• • • • • • • • • •

__ Elizabeth I

__ Edward VI

__ Henry VIII

__ Mary

Number the above monarchs in order from first to last.

- Which broke with the Catholic Church? _____
- Which wanted to restore the Catholic Church? _____
- Which wanted to compromise? _____

“Polity” refers to _____. KNOW the differences between Episcopal, Presbyterian, and Congregational church polity (see p. 65 for some help).

What famous Puritan pastor urged caution in the Salem witch trials? _____

What was the "Halfway Covenant?" What effect did it have? How long did it last?

Explain the differences:

Separatists	Puritans	Low-church Anglicans	High-church Anglicans
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

Who was the great theologian of the Great Awakening? _____ He is perhaps best known for a sermon he preached called _____.

Can you list a few facts about his life?

- _____
- _____
- _____

His son-in-law, _____, was a great _____ to the _____. Although filled with self-doubt, his journals inspired many to follow in his footsteps.

Who was the “voice” of the Great Awakening? _____

Can you list a few facts about his life?

- _____
- _____
- _____

What preacher exemplified extremism in the revival? In other words, who held disorderly meetings, burned good books, and generally gave scoffers reason to mock the Awakening? _____

Those who opposed the revival were known as “_____”; those who supported it were known as “_____.”

The book lists five (yes, FIVE) results of the Great Awakening:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Finally – be able to talk intelligently about the Great Awakening in general. Why was a revival needed? What condition were the churches in before the Awakening? How did the Great Awakening start? What people were important in the Awakening? When was it? In other words, know all about it! For practice and preparation, write out a detailed outline on a sheet of paper.